Concert & Wassail Party

A capacity audience filled Gilbert D. Bristol Auditorium on Sunday afternoon as the Regional Symphonic Band, under the direction of John Pandolfi, and the Sippican Choral Society, under the direction of Leo Peduzzi, entertained with the annual program of Christmas music. A mix of the new and the old was the fare as a Stan Kenton arrangement shared the bill with ancient Russian Christmas music. John Atkinson, the voice of the Symphonic Band, performed two narrations, accompanied by a musical background by the band. John's first reading was the original Christmas story performed with feeling for the lyric beauty of the story of Christ's birth. The second piece was a reading of the jolly poem, 'Twas the Night Before Christmas", and Mr. Atkinson

The Russian selection was extremely interesting as it conjured up the somber grandeur of Christmas in a massive way. In this theme, one could detect the inspiration for some of the magnificent music from the motion picture, "Dr. Zhivago". In contrast, "Sleigh Ride" by Anderson was a selection liltingly light as air in which all the zest of crystal air laced with the breath of snow is evident to the imagination. The Stan Kenton arrangement was an attempt to take traditional music and rework it into a progressive jazz form. To the unenlightened ear which is accustomed to the melodic and well loved Christmas music, it was disturbing in a jarring way. Traditional music should escape Stan Kenton. The listener tends to wish that he were hearing the same songs in their original version.

The very much expanded Sippican Choral Society, under the inspired direction of Mr. Peduzzi, performed admirably. The group sang a very cohesive series of songs that progressed one into the other, setting the beautiful mood of Christmas. The selections dovetailed neatly one upon the other but still invoked a range of mood and melody. Conductor Peduzzi, with no fuss at all, inspires the best from the many voiced instrument under his control.

The combined Band and Chorus joined for the "Hallelujah Chorus" from "The Messiah". The stirring rendition has become a tradition over the years of the Christmas concerts and it is an inspir-

Following the concert, the entire audience was invited to a Wassail Party. Mrs. David McCormack, Mrs. Earle Underwood and Miss Anne Stowell had provided the magnificent setting for the table. A gnarled bare winter tree frosted with glitter and highlighted with twinkle lights formed the centerpiece. Countless dozens of holiday cookies and bowls of punch were attractively arranged and appreciatively consumed.

To all concerned, the Christmas concert was a successful, mood setting start to this season. The band played well, the chorus performed beautifully and the stage setting was handsome. To cap the afternoon, the Wassail was a treat to both the eye and the palate.

Mr. Manuel Nunes contemplates the giant rock that stands at the summit of Tinkham Hill and dead center in the middle of the new dump road.

Dump Breakthrough

LAST OBSTACLE

Standing dead center in the middle of the roadbed at the summit of Tinkham

Standing at the boulder and looking over the dump site. The huge expanse will hopefully take care of Mattapoisett's dump requirements for years in the future.

Hill is this giant multi-ton boulder that Highway Surveyor Manuel Nunes is looking over in this photo. Mr. Nunes has confounded area observers who predicted that building a road to the new Mattapoisett dump site was "too big" a job for him. Starting shortly after Veterans' Day, the Mattapoissett Highway Department has cleared the roadbed, gone down to solid footing through a swampy area, laid the fill and has about half of the roadbed paved to a 26 foot width. Now working on the final stretch of the road, Mr. Nunes is cutting 10 feet through the top of Tinkham Hill and filling below to make a lesser grade for the dump approach. The crew is pressing now in a race against Old Man Winter but the road will be a good solid Manny Nunes road. He said that the grade of the road was raised high enough to protect it from damage from high water in the swamp and that a solid base was achieved to guarantee that the road will stand up over the years. This road is a solid testimony to the skill of Highway Surveyor Nunes and the Mattapoissett highway crew.

N. B. Symphony Soloist

GEORGE FISHER TO BE SOLOIST AT CONCERT

George F. Fisher, Jr. of Mattapoisett will play his favorite Beethoven concerto as soloist with the New Bedford Symphony Orchestra Sunday, December 17th.

The concert, at 3 P.M. at Keith Junior High School, New Bedford, will open the orchestra's 1972-73 subscription series. Arthur P. Renzulli, conductor, will open the concert with the modern work, "Hymn and Fuguing Tune No. 3" by Henry Cowell, followed by Franz Schubert's "Symphony No. 5 in B Major" and Beethoven's "Piano Concerto in G Major".

A senior at Brandeis University, majoring in music, Fisher made an independent comparative study of Beethoven's five piano concertos last summer under a grant from the Doris Brewer Cohen Endowment Fund in the Arts.

He decided he likes the G major, which he will play in New Bedford next Sunday, best of all. He performed it Sunday in Waltham with the Brandeis Symphony Orchestra.

Fisher said he finds the Beethoven concertos more interesting than the Schumann concerto he played with the New Bedford Symphony to an enthusiastic audience two seasons ago. He played one movement from Beethoven's concerto No. 1 in his first appearance with the symphony in a New Bedford Music Week youth concert in 1968.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher of Ned's Point Road, Mattapoisett, Fisher moved to this area seven years ago from Holliston.

He had made his Boston debut the year before at the Boston Conservatory of Music, where he studied under Robert Dumm. Also in 1967, the young artist had won first place in the Intermediate A division for 15-year olds in the Massachusetts Music Teachers Association contest.

He entered Brandeis University under a National Merit Scholarship at graduation

Mrs. George A. Steele, Jr., symphony president, has announced soloists will be featured also at the other two concerts in the symphony season. Both are talented young musicians from this area.

Violinist Curtis J. Macomber of Fairhaven will appear at the February 4th concert. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Macomber of 41 Hedge Street, Fairhaven, he appeared as soloist at symphony youth concerts in 1966 and 1968.

Pianist David J. Langevin of Westport will be soloist April 8th. A protege of the French Festival of Greater New Bedford, he appeared with the symphony last June in a special pops concert under the festival committee's auspices in conjunction with the Whaling City Festival. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Langevin of 17 Beeden Road.

Season tickets for all three concerts are available at the First Unitarian Church office and at Keystone Store, both in New Bedford's center, and at the door. Subscriptions at reduced rates are offered to students. Special tickets for senior citizens also will be available at the door.

Senior Citizens

NO FLU SHOTS

The Senior Citizens of Mattapoissett will not receive their flu shots as there was no cooperation from the Board of Health. Perhaps, something may develop later as we are very much behind all the surrounding towns and cities. If anyone does require the shots who cannot afford the doctor's fee, just use old time remedies and praise the Lord.

There was a pretty good response for the trip to Attleboro and Taunton Green.

Exploring Chairman Named

CHAIRMAN OF AGAWAM DISTRICT

Albert C. Jenney of Marion Road, Rochester has agreed to serve as Exploring Chairman of Agawam District, Moby Dick Council, Boy Scouts of America. The district is composed of the following towns: Fairhaven, Mattapoisett, Marion, Rochester, Acushnet and Wareham.

Exploring is a coeducational program for high school age young people which can take one of two basic directions. The older traditional posts are oriented towards hobbies or leisure time activities. Ship 53, sponsored by the Mattapoisett Lions Club, is an example of a post of this type. The emphasis there is on sailing and other related outdoor activities.

The second type of post is career oriented. These special interest posts are organized to provide young people with an opportunity to experience a vocational field before an actual career must be chosen. Medical Special Interest Post 37, sponsored by Tobey Hospital, is an example of this type.

Mr. Jenney assumes responsibility for the cultivation and recruitment of community resources to work with young people and will work closely with Attorney James

If a captain does not contact you and you are interested please contact one of the captains. The joining age is from 14 years to 100. This idea may grow into a contest between 2 Granges in this County.

Other speakers for the evening were the Pomona Master, Manuel Roderick, and the host master, Mark Harris, who thanked the Pomona members for filling the chairs and presenting the program.

The social hour was in charge of Mrs. LeBaron who served hot chocolate and cookies.

The next meeting, December 21st, will be a Christmas party with an exchange of 50¢ gifts. Please mark your package, man or woman.

are approaching. Entertaining will swing into high gear and people will be eating, eating, eating - much to their regret in January when they have to reckon with the scale. "Just this once" may become a way of life until clothes get tighter and tighter and no longer fit at all.

This problem of weight gain during the holidays is due to a lack of knowledge of low calorie food which can be very tasty and satisfying if prepared with a little skill. The Diet Workshop here in New Bedford which meets every Monday at 5:30 P.M. and 7:30 P.M. and on Thursday at 9:30 A.M. at the YWCA on 66 Spring Street is currently teaching its members (anyone may join anytime) to cook nutritionally balanced foods with a gourmet touch, so that the end result is "diet food" the like of which most people have never tasted.

To prove the point, they have prepared some party recipes which should help people

ENTERTAIN WITH CHICKEN IN CHAUD-FROID

Chicken in Chaud-froid is one of the most elegant dishes ever to be placed on a buffet table. It is cold chicken coated in a flavorful real mayonnaise jellied sauce, and decorated with herbs and vegetable cutouts.

- 1 whole roaster, capon or small turkey
- 1 quart water
- 1 onion
- 2 stalks celery
- 1 carrot
- Salt

Chicken in Chaud-froid
(Glazed Cold Chicken)

- ½ teaspoon peppercorns
- 1 bay leaf
- 3 envelopes unflavored gelatin
- ¾ cup cold water
- 1 cup real mayonnaise

Garnishes, as: thin carrot flowers, green pepperleaves, parsley, dill

Wrap roaster in cheesecloth. Place in kettle on rack with 1-quart water. Add vegetables, salt, peppercorns and bay leaf. Bring to boil, reduce heat, cover and gently simmer until tender, about 2 hours. Remove from stock; chill. Strain stock; chill.

Skim fat layer from cold stock. Melt stock over low heat. Add water, if necessary, to make 3 cups. Bring to a boil. Meanwhile, sprinkle gelatin over ¾ cup cold water; let soften 5 minutes. Add to stock; stir until gelatin is completely dissolved. Stir mayonnaise into 1¼ cups of stock. Chill until slightly thickened. Leave remaining stock at room temperature.

Meanwhile, remove skin from bird. Place bird on wire rack. Pour slightly thickened mayonnaise glaze slowly over bird, coating evenly with all the mixture. If the mixture becomes too firm, heat gently and then cool. Garnish bird as desired. When clear gelatin thickens slightly, coat entire roaster evenly and thoroughly. Chill remaining gelatin until set and firm; break into small flakes with fork and arrange around bird on serving plate.

Holiday Hors d'Oeuvres

Mayonnaise is a basic ingredient in making hors d'oeuvres, and nothing quite equals mayonnaise made at home in a blender or with a mixer. The very special flavor comes from the olive oil used. Here, Spanish olive oil is featured in a traditional Spanish recipe for mayonnaise.

TRUE SPANISH MAYONNAISE

2 egg yolks

1 teaspoon salt

1/2 teaspoon dry mustard

1 cup Spanish olive oil

1 tablespoon vinegar or 1/2 tablespoon lemon juice

Place egg yolks, salt and mustard in small bowl of electric mixer or in blender. Set in motion at low speed. Add olive oil drop by drop at first; then in a very slow stream, pausing now and then to allow mixture to blend thoroughly and thicken. Add vinegar after most of the oil has been incorporated. Makes 1 1/2 cups.

Here are some special holiday hors d'oeuvres -- simple too -- for special entertaining.

Red Caviar Fingers. Generously spread strips of fresh white bread with True Spanish Mayonnaise. Then top with red caviar and garnish with slices of pitted ripe olives.

CHRISTMAS FLOWERS: LORE AND LEGEND

The use of holly as a decoration at Christmas time can be traced back to antiquity,
and many believe that the name is derived from the word "holy". In Germany, where holly is called Christdorn, there is a legend that this thorn was used for the crucifixion crown.

Another tale about holly relates the story of Joseph of Arimathea and eleven of his followers who came to convert some heathen.
While preaching to them on Christmas day,
he dug his staff into the ground and it immediately burst into life and blossom. A church was dedicated on the spot, and this miraculous thorn of holly continued to grow,
blooming always on Christmas day.

The flower that has become one of the best known symbols of the Christmas season is the star-shaped Poinsettia.

There are many legends surrounding this Christmas colored bloom. One tale relates how a poor Mexican girl was heartbroken because she had nothing of value or beauty to offer the Virgin. In desperation, she plucked some scrawny roadside weeds and placed them at the feet of the holy statue. They were immediately transformed into scarlet brilliance. The Poinsettia plant, brought to this country from Mexico more than 125 years ago by Dr. Joel Poinsett, is still called by many "Flor de Noche Buena" -- flower of the holy night.
